Bloom's Taxonomy

Chapter 1.1 –Who Managers Are and Where They Work (pp. 4-7)

Where Do Managers Work?

Managers work in organisations - a systematic arrangement of people brought together to accomplish some specific purpose.

Common Characteristics of Organisations

Organisational Theory   Behavioural Theory   Admin/Bureaucratic Theory   Systems Theory

How Are Managers Different from Non-managerial Employees?

Non-managerial Employees

- Work directly on a job or task
- Have no responsibility/accountability for overseeing the work of others

Managers

- Direct and oversee the activities of others
- May also have work duties not directly related to overseeing others

Management Levels

Chapter 1.2 – What Is Management? (pp. 7-8)

Management is the process of getting things done, effectively and efficiently, through and with people.

Efficiency: Doing things right, or getting the most output from the least amount of inputs.

Effectiveness: Doing the right things, or completing activities so that organisational goals are attained.

Frederick Taylor (1855 -1915) had a lot to say about the scientific way to manage

Chapter 1.3 – What Do Managers Do? (pp. 8-14)

The Functional Approach

- Planning
- Organising
- Leading
- Controlling

Henri Fayol (1916-1947) identified these common functions

The Roles Approach

Henry Mintzberg (1939- ) said managerial work was 'contingent'

The Skills Approach

Conceptual Skills      Interpersonal Skills

Analyse and diagnose

Working well with others

Technical Skills

Political Skills

Possessing expert job knowledge

Political adeptness

Robert L Katz (1939) identified the 'three-skill' approach to managerial.
