

HUMAN GEOGRAPHY

GEOP1010

Complete Lecture Notes & Study Guide

Modules 1-6: Introduction · Cultural Geography · Political Geography
Urban Geography · Geography of Development · Animal Geographies

Full-semester coverage · Key concepts, case studies & definitions

Contents

Module 1	Introduction to Human Geography — space, place, scale, mobility
Module 1	Imperialism, Capitalism & Colonialism — world systems theory, globalisation
Module 2	Cultural Geography — cultural landscapes, new cultural geography
Module 2	Imaginative Geographies — identity, mapping, Manifest Destiny
Module 2	Feminist Geographies — gendering space, embodiment
Module 2	Landscape — power, performance, urban exploration
Module 3	Territoriality & Power — territory, borders, class/gender/race
Module 3	Geopolitics — heartland theory, Cold War, multipolarity
Module 3	Imagining the Nation State — sovereignty, recognition
Module 3	Global Mobilities — migration, diaspora, refugee studies
Module 4	Urbanisation — history, industrial revolution, core/periphery
Module 4	Global Cities — London & Hong Kong case studies
Module 4	Ecological Models of the City — Burgess, Hoyt, Harris & Ullman, Vance
Module 4	Urban Justice — environmental justice, LA & Delhi case studies
Module 5	Development Geographies — economic sectors, global production
Module 5	Aid & International Development — theories, foreign aid
Module 6	Animal Geographies — human-animal relations, zoogeography